

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

Pre-Writing for Compare Contrast Essay for Hidden in America vs. Make Lemonade

Title and director	Title and author
SUMMARY (include a beginning, middle, and end)	SUMMARY (include a beginning, middle, and end)
How are the movie and book similar?
How are the movie and book different?

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

Paragraph Two: Comparison

Similar Characters and their Actions	Similar Characters and their Actions
Examples/Quotes that show Similar Character Behavior	Examples/Quotes that show Similar Character Behavior
Similar Plot Events/Scenes	Similar Plot Events/Scenes
Similar Lessons	Similar Lessons

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

Quotes that show Similar Blind Spots or Failings	Quotes that show Similar Blind Spots or Failings
Quotes that Show Similar Lessons	Quotes that Show Similar Lessons

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

--	--

Paragraph Three: Contrast

Different Characters and their Actions	Different Characters and their Actions
Examples/Quotes that show Differences in Character Behavior	Examples/Quotes that show Differences Character Behavior
Different Plot Events/Scenes	Different Plot Events/Scenes
Different Lessons	Different Lessons

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

Quotes that show Different Blind Spots or Failings	Quotes that show Different Blind Spots or Failings
Quotes that Show Different Lessons	Quotes that Show Different Lessons

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
September 2015

--	--

Paragraph Four: Evaluation

Which piece is better and why?

How does each text connect to the real world? What real world issues does it bring up? How realistic is it?

Student Name

Ms. Haywood

English 8

September 2015